

Dakota College at Bottineau Course Syllabus

Course Prefix/Number/Title: FWLD 296 – Field Studies-Wildlife

Course Description: An intensive examination of a research topic in wildlife. The subject of investigation is designed to meet the specific needs of individual students on an independent study basis.

Course Objectives: A) To allow a student to investigate the methodology of research, B) To gather data for any of the natural resource agencies in North Dakota.

Instructor: Allan Aufforth

Office: Nelson Science Center 102

Office Hours: MWF 11:00-12:00

Phone: 701-228-5463

Email: al.aufforth@dakotacollege.edu

Lecture/Lab Schedule: By arraignment

Textbook(s): None

Course Requirements: Letter grade A-F. Letter grade dependent upon the quantity and quality of research material completed.

Tentative Course Outline: N/A

General Education Goals/Objectives: N/A

Relationship to Campus Theme: N/A

Classroom Policies: N/A

Academic Integrity: N/A

Disabilities and Special Needs:

Please inform the professor before starting the research project if any assistance is required due to disabilities or special needs.