Course Requirements & Evaluation:

This course is designed to prepare you to find and obtain employment. Your attitude, investment in the class, treatment of fellow students and your instructor should reflect the level of professionalism expected in a work setting. Assignments should be completed in a professional and timely manner with the same quality you would give an employer.

Grading for this course is by the letter grading system. The following is a breakdown of how points are earned:

Attendance and In-Class Activities/Participation:	150 points
Project I: Resume	50 points
Project II: Cover Letter	50 points
Project III: Letter of Reference	25 points
Project IV: Interviewing for Information	25 points
Project V: Mock Job Interview	100 points
Project VI: Portfolio	200 points
<hr/>
Total	600 points

Grading

540-600=A (90%)
480-539=B (80%)
420-479=C (70%)
360-419=D (60%)
359 & below=F

As you can see, a large percentage of points come from actually showing up for class and participating. If you need to miss a class, talk to me about an alternative assignment to make up the points if you do not want to lose them for that class period. The requirements for the completed portfolio will be thoroughly discussed in class. The majority of the portfolio contents will be made up of in-class activities and previous assignments, so if you keep up with your attendance and homework, those points will be pretty much guaranteed. My office hours are posted on the bulletin board outside my office, and you are welcome to come see me any time for any reason.

Attendance: If you did not show up for work 3 times without explanation or forewarning, you would be fired. This course is to help you become prepared for the world of work. You will drop one letter grade if you have 3 unexcused absences. Attendance is vital to this class for you to succeed.

Relationship to Campus Theme: This course assists job seekers to interpret human nature--their own and their potential employer’s, and utilize that interpretation to manipulate their perceived value as an employee. Technology assists students to present the most professional presence possible to help their potential employer see beyond the surface to the intrinsic value they represent.

Classroom Policies--Attendance: If you did not show up for work 3 times without explanation or forewarning, you would be fired. This course is to help you become prepared for the world of work. You will drop one letter grade if you have 3 unexcused absences. Attendance is vital to this class for you to succeed.

Academic Integrity:

Pearson Education defines plagiarism this way: Simply put, plagiarism is using someone else's words and ideas in a paper and acting as though they were your own. This definition includes copying someone else's ideas, graphs, pictures, or anything that you borrow without giving credit to the originator of the words and ideas. It definitely includes anything you download from an Internet site or copy out of a book, a newspaper, or a magazine. It also includes stealing the ideas of another person without giving her or him proper credit.

Some obvious examples of plagiarism include

- copying someone else's paper.
- taking short or long quotations from a source without identifying the source.
- turning in a paper you bought over the Internet.

Some less-obvious examples include

- changing a few words around from a book or article and pretending those words are your own.
- rearranging the order of ideas in a list and making the reader think you produced the list.
- borrowing ideas from a source and not giving proper credit to the source.
- turning in a paper from another class. Whether this is plagiarism or not depends on your instructor—ask first!
- using information from an interview or an online chat or email, etc., without properly citing the source of the information.
- using words that were quoted in one source and acting and citing the original source as though you read it yourself.

Please go through the Understanding Plagiarism tutorial on their site.

The consequences of plagiarism in this class depend on the level exhibited, but are at a minimum a failing grade on the assignment up to failing the class. Save yourself the headache and JUST DON'T DO IT.

Disabilities and Special Needs: Please let me know if you have a special need or accommodation request and I will work with you and Disability Services to make sure it is taken care of.
