The academic community is operated on the basis of honesty, integrity and fair play. It is the expectation that all students, as members of the college community, adhere to the highest levels of academic integrity. This means that:

- Students are responsible for submitting their own work. Student work must not be plagiarized.
- Students must not cooperate on oral or written examinations or work together on valued assignments without authorization.
- Students should have high ethical standards and conduct themselves in an appropriate manner.

Cheating and/or plagiarism may include: using unauthorized assistance on any exam, paper or project; presenting the work of someone else as your own without acknowledging the source; taking exams or course material from an instructor or student; submitting the same academic work for credit more than once without consent. Violations will result in a "zero" on the assignment or exam, even if cheating is suspected by the instructor.

View the Plagiarism Tutorial-Pearson Education to learn more about plagiarism, citing sources, etc.

Confidentiality

The experiences or problems shared by classmates during meeting time are not to be discussed outside of class. This is preparation for those going into a helping field where confidentiality is stressed in the CEC Standards for Professional Practice.
