Please be responsible for yourself and plan accordingly.

Policies

Exams

Exams cannot be made up without proof of an extenuating circumstance provided prior to the arranging of a make-up exam (e.g., doctor's excuse).

Exams must be taken when scheduled; however, if you unable to take an exam as scheduled to due to a University Sanctioned Event, it is your responsibility to inform me prior to the absence. Then, the exam must be completed prior to the absence.

Assignments

Assignment deadlines are above and provided in the Modules area of Blackboard and in the Course Plan. All assignments must be turned by the due date and time listed. If you know that you will be unable to meet the deadline for an assignment, send me a text or email prior to the deadline to let me know that it will be arriving late. I will accept late assignments, but you need reach out to make arrangements with me first. I know that things may come up that might prevent you from turning in an assignment on time; the purpose of letting me know in advance is for accountability.

Discussions

There is no late policy for class discussions. Due to the nature of the interactions, all initial posts and replies must be completed on time.

Attendance Policy

University Attendance Policy

Minot State's attendance policy is posted here: <http://www.minotstateu.edu/records/pages/policy-class-attendance.shtml>

University Sanctioned Events Policy

Minot State University has a commitment to students who represent the University in official capacities. University-sanctioned activities include events that are required or encouraged by a class, program, club, or athletic team. When a student has a scheduled absence due to a university-sanctioned activity, it is the student's responsibility to communicate with the faculty member prior to his or her absence.

Academic Honesty Policy

College of Business Academic Honesty Policy

MSU's Academic Honesty Policy from Page 3 of Students Rights and Responsibilities

(https://www.minotstateu.edu/student_rights_responsibilities.pdf). Minot State University is committed to academic integrity. Incidents of academic dishonesty may be documented by the faculty member with a copy of the documentation maintained by the department/division chair. A letter of explanation will be sent to the student. Cheating may affect the student in accordance with the faculty member's grading policy. The student may appeal the faculty member's penalty to the department chair. Student disciplinary action may result in accordance with the Student Conduct Policy. Academic dishonesty would include, but is not limited to, the following types of behaviors:

1. Misrepresenting another individual's work as one's own, e.g. plagiarism from hard copy of the internet.
2. Copying from another student during an exam.

3. Altering one's exam after grading for the purpose of enhancing one's grade.
4. Submitting the same paper to more than one class.
5. Use of any material or device not approved by the instructor during an exam.
6. Turning in reports intended to be based on field collection data but which are, in fact, not.
7. Failure to respect the confidentiality of persons served or studied and to maintain the professional standards for ethical conduct as set forth in The Handbook of School Psychology published by the National Association of School Psychologists.

To the above list, the College of Business adds the following: "Misrepresenting any work that was not originally created by yourself shall constitute a violation of academic honesty. This includes turning in any work that is not originally yours whether that work originated from another person or online."

Process:

Step 1: Student commits academic dishonesty.

Step 2: Instructor will enforce his/her academic honesty policy according to his/her syllabus.

Step 3: Instructor raises Academic Honesty flag in Starfish – with supporting details – for the course. Notification will be sent to the Department Chair, the Vice President of Student Affairs, and the student.

Step 4: After three Academic Honesty flags have been raised on one student across his/her academic career, an investigation is opened by the Vice President of Student Affairs. Student disciplinary action may result in accordance with the Student Handbook.

Penalty for Violating the Policy

College of Business process:

First violation in this course: The student's first violation of academic honesty within this course shall result in a zero (0) for that specific assignment and the instructor will raise a permanent Academic Honesty flag in Starfish. Note, the first violation, depending on weight of the assignment, may cause grade ramification, including the failing of the course. Notification will be sent to the student, chair of the course department, and the Vice President of Student Affairs.

Second violation in this course: The student's second violation of academic honesty within this course shall result in failure of the course, and the instructor will raise another permanent Academic Honesty flag in Starfish.

Students are advised that Minot State University has a process for administering and responding to cumulative Starfish flags as described within the Students Rights and Responsibilities (https://www.minotstateu.edu/student_rights_responsibilities.pdf) and repeated above.

Academic Honesty Policy with Penalty for Violating the Policy: (see the information in the Undergraduate Catalog and in the Graduate Catalog; also see the Student Handbook).

Masks and Face Coverings

In this course, students may be expected to wear a mask or face covering while in the classroom, laboratory, or clinical/school setting. If so, your instructor has indicated this requirement below. If a student chooses not to wear a mask or face covering in an area where it is required:

1. The individual will be asked to comply with the policy. If the person refuses to comply, they will be asked to leave the space. If the person won't comply or leave, MSU Security may be contacted, if necessary, at 701-500-2423.
2. If an individual violates the mask or face covering policy a second time, they will again be asked to comply with the policy. If the person refuses to comply, they will be reported to the Vice President for Student Affairs for a Code of Student Life violation.

Individuals who would like to discuss accommodations regarding masks or face coverings should contact Access Services, in person, by phone at 701-858-3372, or by e-mail at access.services@minotstateu.edu.

Tutoring

The Minot State University Academic Support Center would like to help you reach your academic goals by offering free peer tutoring beginning the second week of classes in the lower level of the Gordon B. Olson Library and virtually. No appointment is necessary and there is no limit to how many times you may meet with a tutor. For a current tutoring schedule, visit https://www.minotstateu.edu/asc/peer_tutoring.shtml. Times and subjects offered may change during the semester so check the schedule often. Visiting the Academic Support Center early in the semester with continued regular attendance produces the best results.

ADA Accommodation Statement

In coordination with Access Services, reasonable accommodations will be provided for qualified students with disabilities (LD, Orthopedic, Hearing, Visual, Speech, Psychological, ADD/ADHD, Health Related, TBI, PTSD and Other). Please meet with the instructor during the first week of class to make arrangements. For the complete non-discrimination statement, visit here.

Title IX Statement

Minot State University (MSU) faculty are committed to helping create a safe learning environment for all students and for the university as a whole. If you have experienced any form of sexual harassment including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking know that help and support are available. MSU has staff members trained to support parties in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, and more. The University strongly encourages all students to report any such incidents to the University. Please be aware that all MSU employees (other than those designated as confidential resources such as counselors, clergy, and healthcare providers) are required to report information about such harassment to the University. This means that if you inform a faculty member about a situation of sexual harassment or other related sexual misconduct, the faculty member must share that information with the University's Title IX Coordinator. If you wish to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility, you can find a list of resources on the Title IX website. For more information about your options, please visit the Title IX website: <https://www.minotstateu.edu/title9/>.

Important Note Regarding Mobile Devices

You cannot successfully complete an online or remote course using only an iPad, iPhone, Android device, or tablet even if you are using the Blackboard mobile app. For example, certain courses contain assignments requiring the recording of presentations that can only be successfully completed with the use of a Windows or Mac OS desktop or laptop. The mobile app is designed for the convenience of receiving course announcements, sending and receiving course messages, and viewing grades. Students will NOT be able to complete an entire course using only the Blackboard mobile app.

Netiquette

- Be direct: Share ideas and comments directly with classmates
- Be specific: Avoid vague discourse. If you like or disagree with a peer's posting, be clear about what aspect you are referring to

- Demonstrate and share knowledge: Use examples from your workplace and life experience that are relevant and contribute to the topic and understanding of course materials
- Share resources: Use resources that help explain your position, such as reports, web sites, blogs, professional articles
- Provide strategies: provide tools, methods, strategies, and best practices that you have used or believe may contribute to the discussion topic
- Be visionary: Try to examine and respond to issues from a different perspective.
- Inspire and Lift: Mediate differences not broaden them. Lift spirits not dampen.
- Share new information or material about the topic.
- Avoid judgment and prejudice
- When straying, bring the discussion back on topic and focus
- Actively participate but don't overdo it
- Offer assistance when appropriate
