Relationship to Campus Focus:

Campus Focus: Nature, Technology, and Beyond

- Students will be familiar with the human environment in the past, present and future and how it relates to the development and influence of literature.

- Students will use technology to access course materials and become more familiar with technological tools for research and written processes.
- Students will use critical thinking to understand the importance and impact of women's literature on self and society.

Classroom Policies:

- Participation. Students are expected to engage in class discussion and activities in the online format. Students will also have an opportunity to share thoughts and ideas with one another and should do so in a constructive and respectful manner.
- Deadlines. All assignments are due according to the online schedule. Students will be deducted 5 points for every 24-hour period the assignment is not turned in, including weekends.

Student E-mail Policy:

Dakota College at Bottineau is increasingly dependent upon email as an official form of communication. A student's campus-assigned email address will be the only one recognized by the Campus for official mailings. The liability for missing or not acting upon important information conveyed via campus email rests with the student.

Academic Integrity:

According to the DCB Student Handbook, students are responsible for submitting their own work. Students who cooperate on oral or written examinations or work without authorization share the responsibility for violation of academic principles, and the students are subject to disciplinary action even when one of the students is not enrolled in the course where the violation occurred. The Code detailed in the Academic Honesty/Dishonesty section of the Student Handbook will serve as the guideline for cases where cheating, plagiarism or other academic improprieties have occurred.

Disabilities and Special Needs:

Students with disabilities or special needs (academic or otherwise) are encouraged to contact the instructor and Disability Support Services.

Title IX:

DCB faculty are committed to helping create a safe learning environment for all students and for the College as a whole. Please be aware that all DCB employees (other than those designated as confidential resources such as advocates, counselors, clergy and healthcare providers) are required to report information about such discrimination and harassment to the College Title IX Coordinator. This means that if a student tells a faculty member about a situation of sexual harassment or sexual violence, or other related misconduct, the faculty member must share that information with the College's Title IX Coordinator. Students wishing to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility can find a list of resources on the DCB Title IX webpage.
