General Education Competency/Learning Outcome(s) OR CTE Competency/Department Learning Outcome(s): This course aligns with the specific general education guidelines established by Dakota College at Bottineau. Specifically students will address the following goals: Students will be able to analyze musical forms using the appropriate terminology, evaluate the social events that influenced their production and coherently explain the relationships between the arts, humanities and society as outlined in Goal 7¹. Specifically Objectives 2 and 4.²

Relationship to Campus Focus: This course uses the campus theme of “Nature, Technology and Beyond,” in part to explore how Americans draw inspiration from the natural world to define national identity. Moreover we explore the complex dynamic relationship between science, nature and art to describe the world at specific moments in time.

Classroom Policies: Cell phone use is prohibited in the classroom. Extenuating circumstances in which the students’ needs to make or receive a phone call are allowed as long as the student leaves the room in a manner that is not disruptive.

Student Email Policy:

Dakota College at Bottineau is increasingly dependent upon email as an official form of communication. A student’s campus-assigned email address will be the only one recognized by the Campus for official mailings. The liability for missing or not acting upon important information conveyed via campus email rests with the student.

Academic Integrity:

According to the DCB Student Handbook, students are responsible for submitting their own work. Students who cooperate on oral or written examinations or work without authorization share the responsibility for violation of academic principles, and the students are subject to disciplinary action even when one of the students is not enrolled in the course where the violation occurred. The Code detailed in the Academic Honesty/Dishonesty section of the Student Handbook will serve as the guideline for cases where cheating, plagiarism or other academic improprieties have occurred.

Disabilities or Special Needs:

Students with disabilities or special needs (academic or otherwise) are encouraged to contact the instructor and Disability Support Services.

Title IX:

Dakota College at Bottineau (DCB) faculty are committed to helping create a safe learning environment for all students and for the College as a whole. Please be aware that all DCB employees (other than those designated as confidential resources such as advocates, counselors, clergy and healthcare providers) are required to report information about such discrimination and harassment to the College Title IX Coordinator. This means that if a student tells a faculty member about a situation of sexual harassment or sexual violence, or other related misconduct, the faculty member must share that information with the College's Title IX Coordinator. Students wishing to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility can find a list of resources on the DCB Title IX webpage.

¹ Goal 7 stipulates that students will demonstrate the ability to create and analyze art; evaluate aesthetics; and synthesize interrelationships among the arts, the humanities and society. <https://www.dakotacollege.edu/academics/general-education-goals-objective-skills>
