

Course Prefix/Number/Title:

PSYC 270H—Honors Abnormal Psychology

Number of credits:

1 credit

Course Description:

In this course, students will learn extensively about different psychological disorders through the use of popular media, non-fiction and fictional accounts of these disorders. Throughout the semester, students will be asked to reflect on portrayals of psychological disorders, and apply DSM-5 diagnostic criteria.

Pre-/Co-requisites:

Pre-requisite: PSYC 111—Introduction to Psychology

Co-requisite: PSYC 270—Abnormal Psychology

Course Objectives:

Students will:

1. Define key concepts in the field of abnormal psychology.
2. Demonstrate an understanding of basic diagnosis of psychological disorders.
3. Explain basic psychological disorders, including classification, symptoms, and etiology.
4. Apply concepts learned in class to different scenarios (both in class, and within their own lives).
5. Present at the Honors Symposium

Course Requirements:

- Read weekly readings and come to class prepared to discuss.
- Participate in seminar style discussion.
- Present research in proper APA format at the Honors Symposium

***If the above criteria are met, the student will receive a passing grade. If students fail to meet the above criteria, students will not pass the honors portion of PSYC 270.

Major Assignments:

- Literature Review: After selecting a topic of focus, students will gather journal articles and perform a literature review. This literature review should involve learning extensive “expert” knowledge of the topic. Students should understand the past, present, and future of the area of study.
- Honors Symposium Presentation: Students will present (as a group) the information gathered in the literature review at the Honors Symposium. This presentation should last approximately 20 minutes. Students should create a conference style presentation (utilizing PowerPoint), cover the history and future directions of the material, and should be capable of answering questions relevant to the topic of study.

Relationship to Campus Focus:

Campus Focus: Nature, Technology, and Beyond

- Students will be familiar with the technological tools used to investigate the mind and our behavior.
- Students will be familiar with how nature influences our own (psychological) development.
- Students will use critical thinking to understand the importance of psychology now, and in the future.

Classroom Policies:

- Participation. Students are expected to come to class prepared and actively engage in class discussion and activities. The classroom environment is open and harassment free, so please engaged in discussion. Computers are NOT allowed in this seminar style class.
- Grades. Grades in this class are based on participation in class discussions, and coming to class prepared (i.e. reading the assigned readings and completing the diagnostic criteria requirements). The instructor will notify the students of their pass/fail status during Week 5 and Week 13 (students should feel free to inquire about their status whenever they see fit).

Student E-mail Policy:

Dakota College at Bottineau is increasingly dependent upon email as an official form of communication. A student's campus-assigned email address will be the only one recognized by the Campus for official mailings. The liability for missing or not acting upon important information conveyed via campus email rests with the student.

Academic Integrity:

According to the DCB Student Handbook, students are responsible for submitting their own work. Students who cooperate on oral or written examinations or work without authorization share the responsibility for violation of academic principles, and the students are subject to disciplinary action even when one of the students is not enrolled in the course where the violation occurred. The Code detailed in the Academic Honesty/Dishonesty section of the Student Handbook will serve as the guideline for cases where cheating, plagiarism or other academic improprieties have occurred.

Disabilities and Special Needs:

Students with disabilities or special needs (academic or otherwise) are encouraged to contact the instructor and Disability Support Services.

Title IX:

DCB faculty are committed to helping create a safe learning environment for all students and for the College as a whole. Please be aware that all DCB employees (other than those designated as confidential resources such as advocates, counselors, clergy and healthcare providers) are required to report information about such discrimination and harassment to the College Title IX Coordinator. This means that if a student tells a faculty member about a situation of sexual harassment or sexual violence, or other related misconduct, the faculty member must share that information with the College's Title IX Coordinator. Students wishing to speak to a confidential employee who does not have this reporting responsibility can find a list of resources on the DCB Title IX webpage.
